

Tax department sets strict targets to resolve appeals: sources

Expressing similar sentiments, Sandeep Jhunjhunwala, Tax Partner at Nangia Andersen LLP said, "While the provisional figures of direct tax collections continue to register steady growth, disputes management still remains a strenuous conundrum for taxpayers as well as the taxmen. CBDT's notification of 18 Dispute Resolution Committees across the country, introduction of Young Professional Scheme to aid Departmental Representatives, operationalization of the Board for Advance Rulings in Delhi and Mumbai, are all promising steps in the right direction."